SUCCESSFUL GOP CANVAS

The recent GOP canvas in the town of Rochester was very successful according to Mrs. Henry B. Smith, Finance chairman of the Republican Town Committee. Rochester exceeded its quota of $300 as of last Monday, September 26th, and donations continue to come in. A dinner ticket was issued for each $100 raised through small contributions to those workers who raised the most money. The Nixon Campaign Dinner was held at the Commonwealth Armory in Boston on September 29th, and Vice-President Nixon was present and the principal speaker. His speech was followed by an excellent closed-circuit television program featuring President Eisenhower, Henry Cabot Lodge and other Republican political personalities. Those attending the dinner from Rochester were Mrs. Thomas Oldfield, Mrs. Greenwood Hartley, Sr., Paul Gibbs and Mrs. Smith.

In addition to doorbell ringing last week by committee members, an intensive house-to-house canvas was held on Thursday evening, September 22nd. Workers were Mrs. Russell Lawrence. Mrs. Jesse Metcalf, Mrs. Thomas Oldfield, Mrs. Henry Smith and Mrs. Greenwood Hartley, Sr. Also, Paul Gibbs, Greenwood Hartley, Jr. and the Misses Diane Phillips, Janice Lawrence, Constance Hardy, Anne

IN THE WAKE OF THE STORM

After the fury was over
And the wind and the rain had died down;
I took a walk in the wake of the storm,
Around about the town.

Everywhere there were broken branches.
Falling Trees took wires as they fell.
Almost every roof lost some shingles.
The damage was hard to tell.

The loss was not great at the sea-shore
Because of the ebbing tide.
Some boats had broken their moorings
And been taken for a ride.

But the sea was really the culprit
For the storm's most nefarious deeds -
That whipping salt spray that killed everything -
Everything - but the weeds.

-Julia L. Keane
